From the Principal's Desk...

Prof .N. A. Patil

I am indeed pleased to publish our newsletter LOKSEVA PRATISHTHANS Lokseva College of Pharmacy Phulgaon Pune has made remarkable progress during its standing of 19 years, scaling new heights in the academic standards. Apart from rendering quality education to the students, the college is also keen to develop its students into highly skilled and competent professionals to serve the society. The students are provided with various platforms to ensure their overall personality development. These activities boost the spirit and confidence in the students to help them achieve great success in their future career.

The main objective of this newsletter is to showcase the path on which the college is heading with great pace. It is the reflection of the efforts the college is putting in to shape up the future of budding pharmacists through numerous activities. I would appreciate the staff and students wholeheartedly for turning each venture into a memorable and successful event.

I appeal to the readers to go through our journey and revert back to us for your valuable feedback.

Best of luck
